

Focus Group Questions

1. What are some resources [writing center administrators and staff] have introduced that you find helpful to use during your tutoring sessions?
2. What are some topics of conversations you've had with each other relevant to your work in our writing center?
3. What is one concept you identified as a concern on your [AP Style] proficiency exam? How did you go about learning it?
4. How have our tutor education meetings helped you manage your free tutoring hours?
5. How have our feedback forms helped you stay organized?
6. How often do you use resources during your writing process sessions? Use your fingers to respond: 1=never, 2=occasionally, 3=sometimes, 4=Often, 5=Every session
7. Based on what you learned during the reading/writing connection training, how have you adapted to different learning preferences in your sessions?
8. How have [writing center administrators and staff] provided you with feedback this semester?
9. How often do you use resources during your media writing sessions? Use your fingers to respond: 1=never, 2=occasionally, 3=sometimes, 4=Often, 5=Every session
10. If applicable, please explain why you use more resources for media writing tutoring than you do writing process tutoring or vice versa.