Later in the semester our schedule gets busy, so we immediately post if we have cancellations and openings #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:00 | WriteDubC

Right now I use it to send out information about events and grammar tips. We encourage students to send us questions. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:00 | htaylor00

Jason & Julie from BMCC (Borough of Manhattan Community College, City University of New York) here! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:01 | BMCCWC

We use Twitter to post tips, quotes, lit related posts, and business/ marketing articles that can be useful to students and faculty #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:01 | tamuwc

@DePaulUCWbL here. We feed our blog through Twitter and advertise events on campus we sponsor. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:01 | DePaulUCWbL

Our wc doesn't have a twitter acct., partly because twitter doesn't seem to be that popular on our campus. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:01 | laglowzenski

@htaylor00 Have writers been utilizing your center's twitter account to ask questions? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:02 | WriteDubC

I love @WriteDubC 's idea to post cancellations and openings last minute--very cool! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:02 | vwwritingcenter

@DePaulUCWbL I think your twitter is one of the most active wc accts. I've seen! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:02 | laglowzenski

Kaplan reporting in #wcchat.

02-Feb-12 20:02 | PickleInk

#wcchat Anyone have figures on how many students check in on your tweets and how often?

02-Feb-12 20:02 | WLNewsletter

Illinois Central College, and we use Twitter to promote openings in the schedule and different events. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:02 | TheStudioatICC

How do you find your students on Twitter? Do they decide to follow you, or do you reach out to them? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:03 | BMCCWC

@WriteDubC We've had questions come in via direct message. Most of the questions still come through the Facebook page, though. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:03 | htaylor00

@htaylor00 How do you manage student questions? I thought about encouraging that but thought it might get overwhelming. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:04 | write4college

Do many of you find your twitter updates tend to coincide/replicate your facebook page updates? Do you use them in different ways? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:05 | vwwritingcenter

@BMCCWC We reach out to them through events on campus and info sheets with our "Twitter Handle". #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:05 | htaylor00

The BerenWC here. Hoping to get comfy using twitter #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:05 | BerenWC

We have more of a student following on Facebook and "outside" followers on Twitter. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:05 | tamuwc

We found it helpful to follow campus departments & organizations, but not many individual students have started to follow us--yet. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:05 | tcsalvo

@vwwritingcenter We tend to use ours similarly. But we like to make FB posts a little longer simply because we can. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:05 | WriteDubC

@write4college We're a small school, so the number of questions we get is not overwhelming. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:06 | htaylor00

@htaylor00 what kind of questions do you field from students? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:06 | UWMWritingCtr

@vwwritingcenter Sometimes- we try to get both short but Facebook is the more detailed version of our tweets. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:06 | tamuwc

Curious if anyone has a great way to promote their twitter feeds. What's worked? What hasn't worked? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:07 | WriteDubC

@vwwritingcenter It mostly depends on the content. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:07 | tamuwc

#wcchat: For WLN, the FB and Twitter do sort of repeat. I assume different audiences. Not so?

02-Feb-12 20:07 | WLNNewsletter

We have done email blasts to faculty and students. We saw a big jump in followers in one day. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:08 | tamuwc

@WriteDubC Our official campus Twitter account often retweets our posts. Very helpful in reaching a larger audience! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:08 | tcsalvo

@UWMWritingCtr It could be anything from how to get a session to how to cite something. Usually ends with them coming to the Center. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:08 | htaylor00

@wlnewsletter managefitter can give you info on followers, including people who you follow who are not following back #wcchat #wcchat

#wcchat I like the idea of posting cancellations: our appt. scheduler doesn't allow bookings less than 24h before an appt. starts.@WritedubC

02-Feb-12 20:09 | RollinsSource

@write4college Yes! Mass campus email can help! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:09 | tamuwc

At Kaplan, we use Twitter to promote new resources, workshops, and Live Tutoring reminders #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:09 | PickleInk

@TheStudioatICC Most definitely a great use of twitter. I've been retweeting you all and discovering useful links and articles. #wcchat

#wcchat - At Daytona State, we have not yet found a way to use twitter effecively.... except to keep up with WLNewsletter

02-Feb-12 20:10 | CwG_NSF

@tcsalvo agree! seems like it's more a tool for (pre)professionalization #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:10 | jwluther

@tamuwc Great, thanks! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:10 | write4college

@WLNewsletter I'll be archiving on Storify but happy to take suggestions for different/better ways. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:10 | laglowzenski

@write4college Thanks- most of the links come from our student consultants. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:11 | TheStudioatICC

We use twitter as a tool in our anti-marginalization fight. It's a cyber student union and we're right there with everyone! #wcchat

#wcchat: Thanks, DePaul, I'll try managefitter. Is that a separate ap or something within Twitter?

02-Feb-12 20:11 | WLNewsletter

@wlnewsletter we also use filtertweeps to follow students, community organizations, etc #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:11 | DePaulUCWbL

Kaplan KUWC promotes on FB, blogs, and web pages #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:12 | PickleInk

@wlnewsletter It's a web app that connects to your Twitter account. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:12 | DePaulUCWbL

We would like the opportunity to connect with other tutors, too. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:12 | ASU_WC

@laglowzenski LeeAnn, I can ask our WLN web guy if he can store this, and maybe IWCA's website too? #wcchat

#wcchat It's great that so many WCs follow each other on Twitter. It's like eavesdropping on other centers' activities.

02-Feb-12 20:13 | jrgmckinney

@RollinsSource Not a fan of syncing the posts so they go too both. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:13 | tamuwc

@WLNewsletter Sounds like a plan! I can post the storify link to WLN's FB page, too. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:14 | laglowzenski

@DePaulUCWbL DePaul friends, you're super-knowledgeable about all this. THANKS! And where will your site for storing this, Lee Ann? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:14 | WLNewsletter

@DePaulUCWbL @wlnewsletter DePaul, you guys seem really up on the tech aspect. Would love a "how to" post somewhere on stat tracking #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:15 | WriteDubC

We benefit so much from following other writing centers- tons of great ideas, tips, links, etc. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:15 | tamuwc

What techniques have you used to get consultants involved in your wc twitter feed? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:15 | BrandyGrabow

There seems to be a distinction between the student-audience twitter and the WC-audience twitter; can it be both? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:16 | wwwritingcenter

Is anyone using Twitter in ways that you don't use Facebook? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:16 | WriteDubC

@DePaulUCWbL P. S. - LOVE The Breakroom! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:16 | BrandyGrabow

@WLNewsletter It's web-based, so it'll all stay in the cloud, I think. <http://t.co/50Mo4JwU> #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:16 | laglowzenski

Or maybe better: is your twitter production (tweets) for students and your reception (reading) primarily the tweets of other WCs? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:17 | wwwritingcenter

#wcchat At NCPTW my intern learned about posting everyday on Fb, w/ a diff. category for each day, and a person assigned to each one.

02-Feb-12 20:17 | RollinsSource

#wcchat: TAMU that's what wc's do...SHARE! Of course we should be retweeting from each other's posts.

02-Feb-12 20:18 | WLNewsletter

@vwritingcenter That seems to be the case for us: reading other WCs but tweeting for students. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:18 | tcsalvo

I also wonder how to address off-campus followers that aren't from other WCs or writing-related groups. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:19 | tcsalvo

@laglowzenski e-mail me for this techie part of posting a link. No need to take up space here. harrism@purdue.edu #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:19 | WLNewsletter

@vwritingcenter Yes, that seems to be the case for us as well. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:19 | TheStudioatICC

@WLNewsletter Yes! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:19 | tamuwc

we use twitter to post helpful writing quotes #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:19 | BMCCWC

We do not have any tutors post to twitter or facebook but we do get tips and ideas from them. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:20 | tamuwc

@tcsalvo I feel like our first audience/responsibility is our campus population. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:21 | BrandyGrabow

@tamuwc why not? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:21 | jrgmckinney

#wcchat: Anyone try injecting some humor in your tweets?

02-Feb-12 20:22 | WLNewsletter

@BrandyGrabow @tcsalvo I agree. Not that we purposely ignore outsiders, but they shouldn't be our focus. Our focus is our community. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:22 | WriteDubC

@BrandyGrabow I agree, but when other users follow & retweet workshop announcements, does it lead to confusion about services? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:23 | tcsalvo

Clarification. consultant connecting to other consultants through their own accounts. Our center account should be for our campus. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:23 | BrandyGrabow

@tcsalvo We have been fortunate to reach that following as well. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:24 | tamuwc

#wcchat We have 2 private Facebook groups for the content and writing tutors where they post ideas/links for our public Fb page @tamuwc

02-Feb-12 20:25 | RollinsSource

@tamuwc Do you ever have non-campus folks calling for a consultation appointment? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:26 | tcsalvo

@tcsalvo tcsalvo Good question. I try to put #ncsustudents after all our center tweets to define our audience. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:26 | BrandyGrabow

@WriteDubC I asked about humor because WLN posts, especially on FB, that have some humor are clicked on and commented on a lot. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:26 | WLNewsletter

We have a Facebook page, linked to Twitter. Also a closed Facebook group for current and alum tutors. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:26 | UWMWritingCtr

I think there's an audience for writing advice outside of the academic setting. I often wonder how to reach that larger community. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:27 | WACLab

@BrandyGrabow Great idea to distinguish target users! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:27 | tcsalvo

#wcchat wondering about consultant use of twitter and how often they encourage students to use it as part of their read/write process

02-Feb-12 20:27 | jwluther

Do any of your schools have social media policies? We have one & had to register our twitter/fb with the university. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:27 | jrgmckinney

@tcsalvo Not to my knowledge. College Station is very much the university so there isn't much confusion. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:27 | tamuwc

@UWMWritingCtr In fact our current Assistant Director just took a job next year heading up the WC at Pace University #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:28 | WriteDubC

@ASU_WC Sometimes we tweet/retweet about community events, especially ones involving literacy and writing #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:28 | DePaulUCWbL

What about seeking faculty followers who might pass along our tweeted info. to their students? Some FYC fac use twitter in class. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:28 | write4college

@tcsalvo Defining audience is the major issue of using new media (I think) #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:28 | BrandyGrabow

@write4college I am actually unaware of any faculty members here that use it, otherwise it'd be a fantastic use of it. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:30 | WriteDubC

@jrgmckinney As far as I know, we don't currently. But, I wouldn't be surprised to see it coming. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:31 | BrandyGrabow

@BrandyGrabow I assumed that students would be our primary audience until others started following. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:31 | tcsalvo

If your school has a #smashup, get your FB and Twitter accounts listed there. See <http://t.co/QniECLne> #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:32 | DePaulUCWbL

@WLNewsletter #wcchat Honestly, never thought to check.

02-Feb-12 20:32 | BrandyGrabow

I'm wondering how many of you find it useful to post after WC hours? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:33 | WriteDubC

RT @MuditSharma28: this is meta. tweeting about twitter using twitter. the best way to be good at twitter is to tweet it. #fycgop #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:34 | rwmonty

@WLNewsletter A quick check found this: <http://t.co/qKbxAgbJ> #wcchat.

02-Feb-12 20:35 | BrandyGrabow

@WriteDubC It depends on the subject- matter. Pictures always get noticed no matter the hour. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:35 | tamuwc

@WriteDubC After-hours tweeting could be quite useful--tips to the students struggling because they didn't go to the wc! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:35 | write4college

@WriteDubC Check out <http://t.co/2UFPqfoV> for a beautiful infographic on the 'science of social media timing' #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:35 | DePaulUCWbL

We have a social media policy team at our univ. They advised not to sound desperate, e.g. "we have four tutors with nothing to do!" #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:36 | jrgmckinney

Thanks for the great chat, everyone! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:36 | wwwritingcenter

That's half the point of twitter, isn't it? RT @WLNewsletter: #wcchat Anyone try injecting some humor in your tweets?

02-Feb-12 20:36 | rwmonty

@DePaulUCWbL That infographic is on my desk! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:37 | tamuwc

@WriteDubC I agree. The medium is better for information delivery rather than exchange (with the exception of a TweetChat) #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:40 | USAWritingCente

@WriteDubC @laglowzenski I don't think Twitter would be useful as a tutoring medium. I'm curious if any WCs here use Second Life. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:40 | DePaulUCWbL

@WriteDubC very true. :) #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:40 | laglowzenski

@jrgmckinney Sounds like good advice! We post a lot of reminders, I'm afraid of sounding like a mother hen. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:41 | BrandyGrabow

Useful for quick questions, point to resources, or encouraging visiting a tutor perhaps #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:41 | PickleInk

@WriteDubC I would makes sense to post after hours, right? Twitter does turn off just because the UWC is closed. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:41 | rwmonty

@WriteDubC though it does raise the possibility of using twitter to teach conciseness in student writing... #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:41 | laglowzenski

Hi all. Kurt Bouman here. Has anyone sought internal/external grant funding to acquire Twitter technology (eg, ipads, etc.)? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:41 | rhetorikurt

Maybe this chat could be put into an infographic to complement the Storify summary. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:42 | write4college

@WriteDubC @laglowzenski #wcchat Agreed! I doubt students tweet complete questions in 140 characters. Maybe send links to online sources?

02-Feb-12 20:42 | WLNewsletter

@DePaulUCWbL #wcchat I've read that SL is decreasing in use. True?

02-Feb-12 20:43 | WLNewsletter

@laglowzenski If a student needs help with wordiness, twitter tutoring could be a fun and effective way to assist him/her. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:43 | write4college

@DePaulUCWbL The FYC program at UTEP has used Second Life to virtually host the Student Film Festival #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:44 | UTEP_UWC

@write4college I know it has helped me become more aware of my wordiness! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:45 | laglowzenski

@write4college @laglowzenski #wcchat: Twitter forces my wordiness to be chopped down. Helps me too!

02-Feb-12 20:45 | WLNewsletter

@WLNNewsletter yes, we tweet links to online resources. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:49 | PickleInk

@PickleInk #wcchat: Neat! Any links to lots of ESL resources?

02-Feb-12 20:51 | WLNNewsletter

So who has student followers retweeting you and/or replying to your tweets? Curious to know if wc-student interaction is achieved. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:52 | write4college

@tcsalvo @WLNNewsletter Good points @ SL. We might use it for writing groups, though. Any other good platforms for online group work? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:53 | DePaulUCWbL

Hi, all, so fun to meet you all here! We're excited to hear how you use Twitter in your WC!
#wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:53 | ucawrtgcenter

@PickleInk @WLNNewsletter OH yes, would love some helpful links for ELL students. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:53 | WriteDubC

Thoughts on who controls (or whether / should /shouldn't ctrl) the Twitter acct of a WC--eg, how much Panopticoning shd there B? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:53 | rhetorikurt

@WLNNewsletter I must be off, but this chat will be posted somewhere in the near future I hope, yes? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:53 | WriteDubC

@WriteDubC @PickleInk #wcchat Is Dave's ESL Cafe still online? That was excellent last time I peeked in

02-Feb-12 20:54 | WLNNewsletter

@DePaulUCWbL I'm a fan of the google products. Haven't tried the hangout on G+, but I've heard good things.
#wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:55 | laglowzenski

@WriteDubC #wcchat I'll chat on e-mail with Lee Ann about getting her Storify archive on the WLN website.

02-Feb-12 20:55 | WLNNewsletter

There are two of us from UCA: Joanna and Jennifer. We'll identify by JCP and JSD. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:55 | ucawrtgcenter

@rhetorikurt There are three people who control our UWC twitter and facebook- that's it! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:55 | tamuwc

Sorry everyone. We got busy and space out this chat. gotta catch up.
#wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:56 | ppcctutor

@WLNNewsletter Yes, it's still up. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:56 | write4college

@tamuwc Wonderful! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:57 | write4college

@laglowzinski We haven't explored Google+ yet. Thanks for the tip! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:58 | DePaulUCWbL

@rhetorikurt We have a tutor in charge of the FB&Twitter posts, but our front desk people also tweet updates on wait times, etc #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:58 | alanbenson

Do you (tamu/ucaw) find that important--that limited control? I get it, but still I wonder--is it an undemocratizing move for a WC? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:58 | rhetorikurt

Two minutes left--unless we're not limiting ourselves to 1 hour :) Topic suggestion for next time? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:59 | write4college

The chat can go on as long as you'd like, but as some of us are leaving, thoughts on future topics? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:59 | laglowzinski

@write4college the hour went fast, didn't it? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 20:59 | laglowzinski

Oops, we're on Chicago time, so we just joined! Jsd #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:00 | ucawrtgcenter

#wcchat As a WC, who do you see as your Twitter audience? Students, consultants, professionals? All the above?

02-Feb-12 21:00 | syracusewec

@write4college Would it be worthwhile to get some tutors (pro, ug, etc.) involved next time? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:00 | rwmonty

@rhetorikurt Limited control allows us to be more efficient and effective with our consultants. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:00 | tamuwc

@laglowzinski Managing institutional identity while allowing for individual voice. Christy Zinks suggested this on the listserv. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:00 | write4college

@laglowzinski Sure did! I can hang around a little longer, then it's dissertation time! #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:01 | write4college

Topic? How to build followers in a metropolitan comm coll w/ages from 19-93. tough nut to crack so far #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:02 | ppctutor

#wcchat could be useful for post-conference discussion and reflection. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:02 | DePaulUCWbL

Topic: how best to serve grad students and ESL students.
#wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:03 | tcsalvo

don't forget about Online Talk Time (free) writing center conference next week. <http://t.co/xPumUEkk> registration is still open. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:04 | ppctutor

@write4college @tamuwc I wonder: does the Twitterverse help or impede followers in disambiguating individual & institutional voices? #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:05 | rhetorikurt

RT @write4college: @rwmonty Absolutely! The tutor perspective would be great for this chat. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:05 | rwmonty

@tamuwc Excellent topic. We have a large international grad. student population who would really benefit from a writing group. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:06 | write4college

@BrandyGrabow Yes! Could even be related to the WCenter discussion about workshops but not limited to it. #wcchat

02-Feb-12 21:06 | tcsalvo
