@KUWC #wchat We are creating a community poem in chalk on the sidewalk outside the center.

@KUWC I was just reading about NWP's use of the #whyIwrite hashtag. Nice way to connect student writers to others #wchat

I am trying to of a place where students and faculty could share their writing. #wchat

 Lee Ann

@BrandyGrabow I love these. I've seen other groups do them for Take Back the Night, stats sharing, etc. #wchat

@laglowzenski virtual space for sharing writing. #wchat

 Brandy Grabow

@KUWC #wchat Wish I could claim the idea. It came from one of the consultants.

 Lee Ann

@KUWC What about a blog or tumblr? Could solicit posts to an email address to avoid worrying about site ownership/permissions #wchat

5 hours ago

@laglowzinski yes- permission is an issue. Email could work. Hmm tumblr #wchat

@KUWC I'm not a fan of tumblr, to be honest. The embedded reblogging drives me crazy. #wchat

Hi All, This is NEIU's Center for Academic Writing, and it's the first time we're on Twitter and participating in #wchat.

@NEIU_CAW Hello, welcome! #wchat

Lee Ann

@NEIU_CAW Does your center have any plans for National Day on Writing? #wchat

Lee Ann

5 hours ago

#wchat One of my goals was increasing consultant involvement with center projects.

Brandy Grabow

#wchat NDOW seemed like a fun low-stakes way to get everyone excited/involved.

 Brandy Grabow

Goal for day= celebrating writing as valued for all ins' and outside the academy. Hearing everyone's story!

@BrandyGrabow This is great. In many WCs where I've worked, unscheduled time has been "study hall." The utilization convo on + #wchat

 Lee Ann

@BrandyGrabow wcenter has gotten me thinking about tutor investment in center beyond consulting duties.

NDOW as a way to showcase the writing center. And the WC as a place to celebrate writing. #wchat

 KU Writing Center

@KUWC Also a time to foster cross-institution relationships, maybe? #wchat

 Lee Ann

@laglowzenski In my mind study time is one of the few perks we can offer student consultants. But, it's a different chat. :) #wchat @BrandyGrabow great goal. It is a chance to be inviting.

We're thinking about having students write down their favorite quotations on writing, and we can put them on our bulletin board #wchat

NEIU CAW

@laglowzenski yes- a WC, WAC, and collaboration all around. #wchat

@BrandyGrabow I agree, though! Especially since, when we get slammed, tutors are working every second. #wchat
